Description: Designed with nods to the distinct design philosophies of a "who's who" list of legendary golf course architects, The Monument course never stops surprising players of all levels. Borrowing from the genius of designers like Donald Ross, Dr. Alister Mackenzie, Robert Trent Jones, George Fazio, and Pete Dye, The Monument lives up to its name as it pays homage to the game's most important influences with holes dedicated to players and key contributors. Experience The Monument - a one-of-a-kind, playable hall of fame.

Signature: No. 18. Par 4 - 438 yards
Dedicated after golfing legend Sam Snead, the 18th is a spectacular finishing hole. It challenges you to place your tee shot as close as possible to the water's edge. The second shot can make or break your round as the prevailing winds will definitely affect your club selection. The island green complex encourages you to take plenty of club to avoid a watery grave. Many side bets are settled on this hole as it tends to be a relentless test for even the savviest of players.
